

The Economics of EVs and the Roles of Government

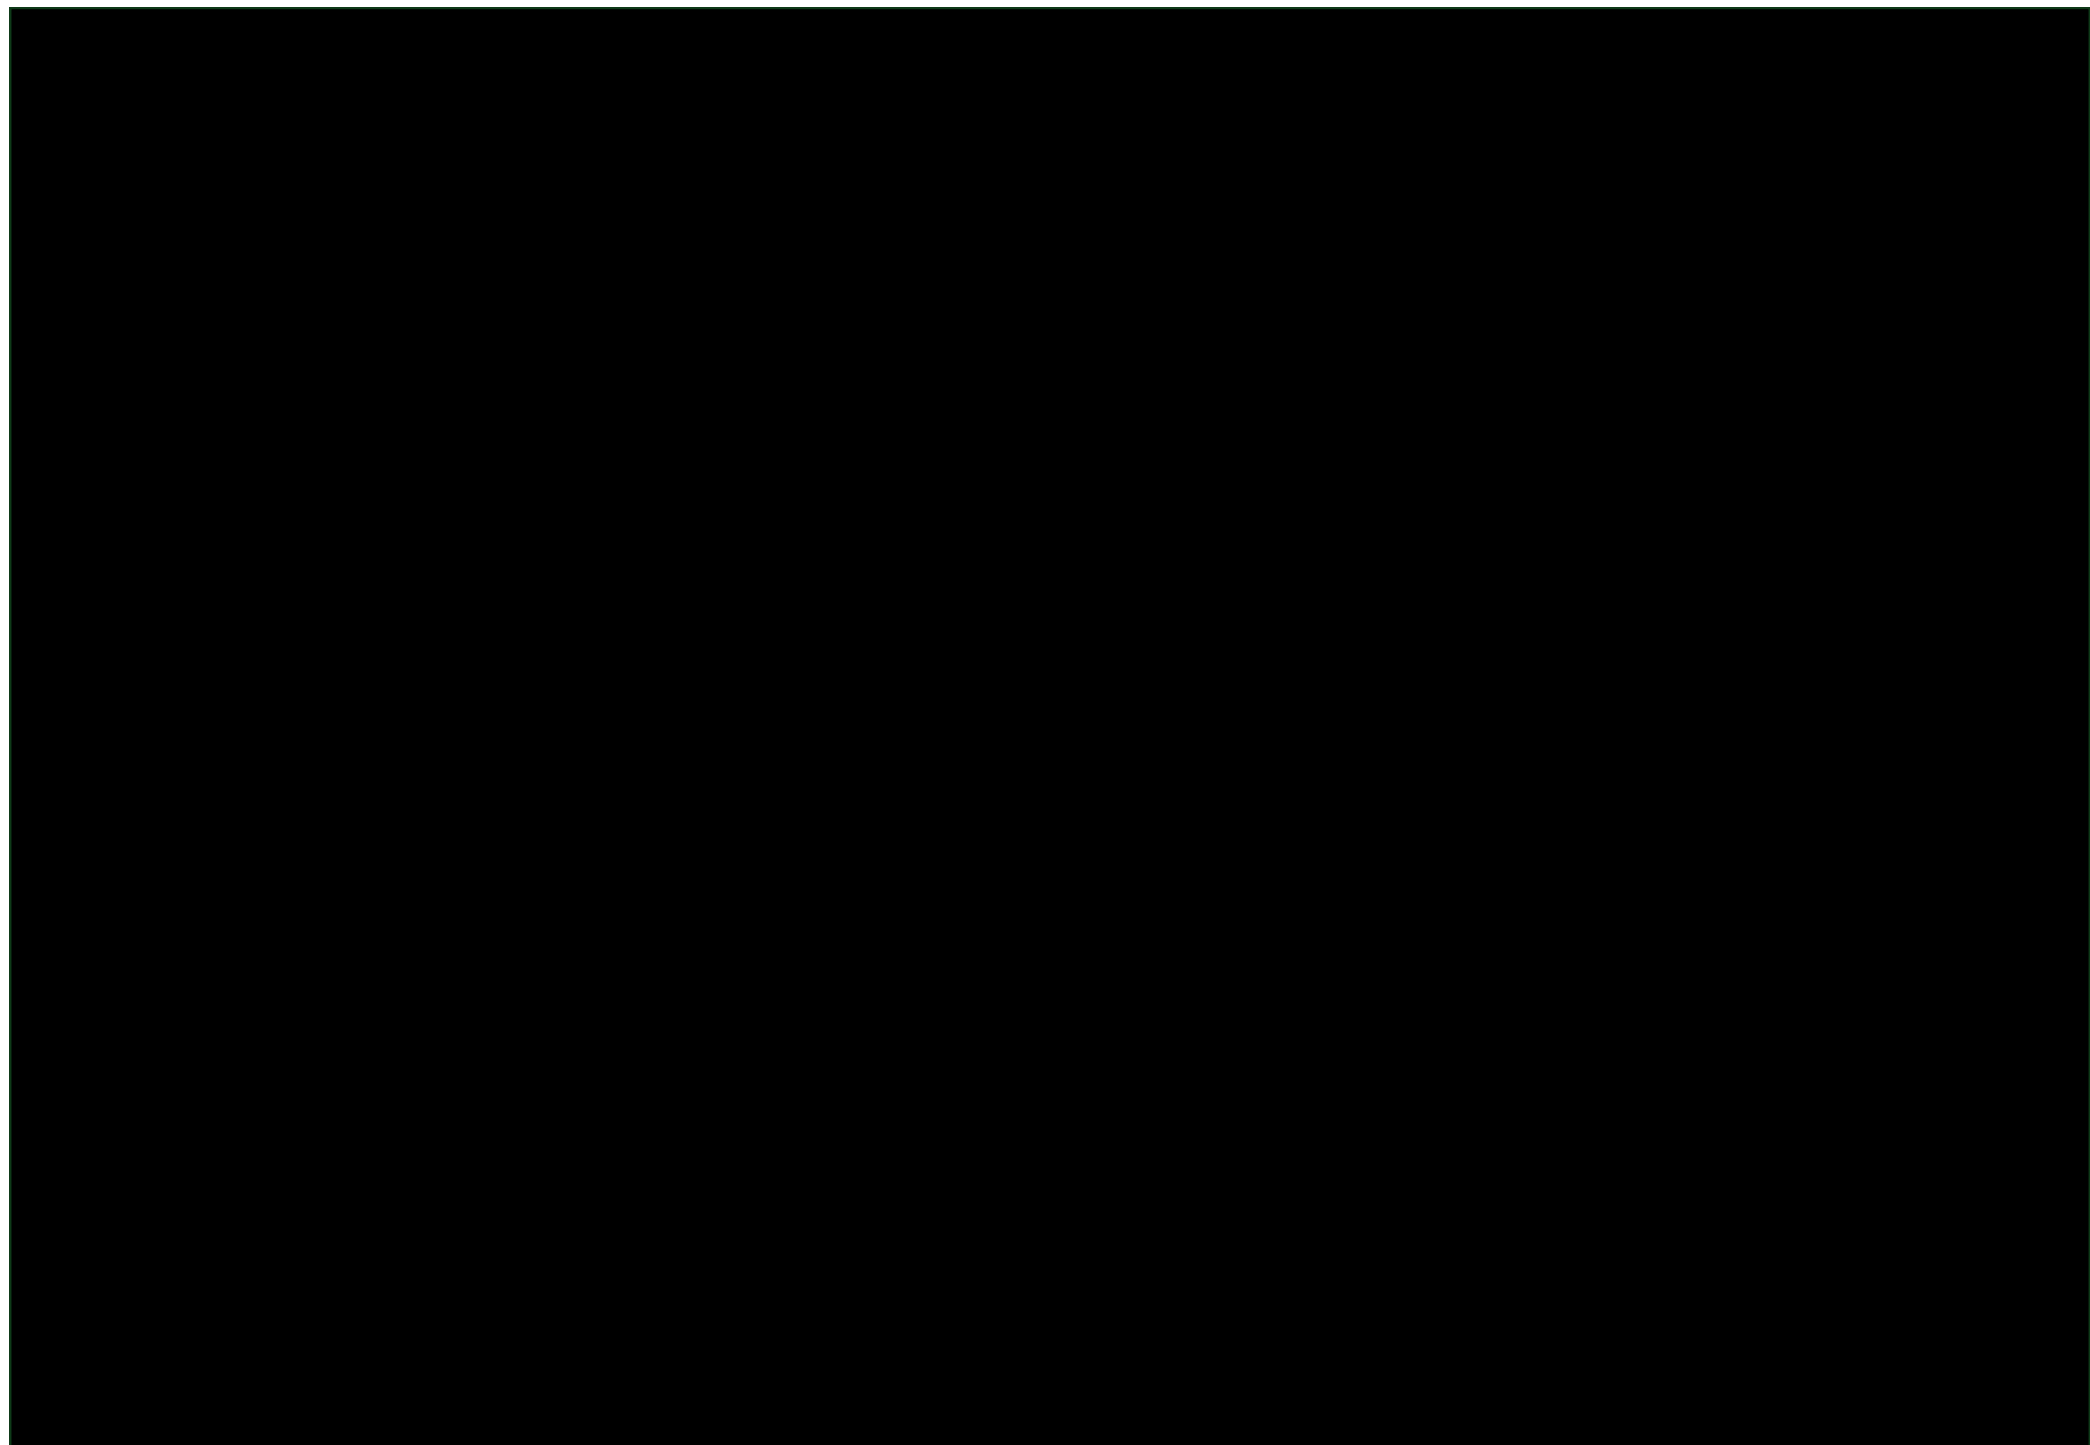

Bruce Blanning

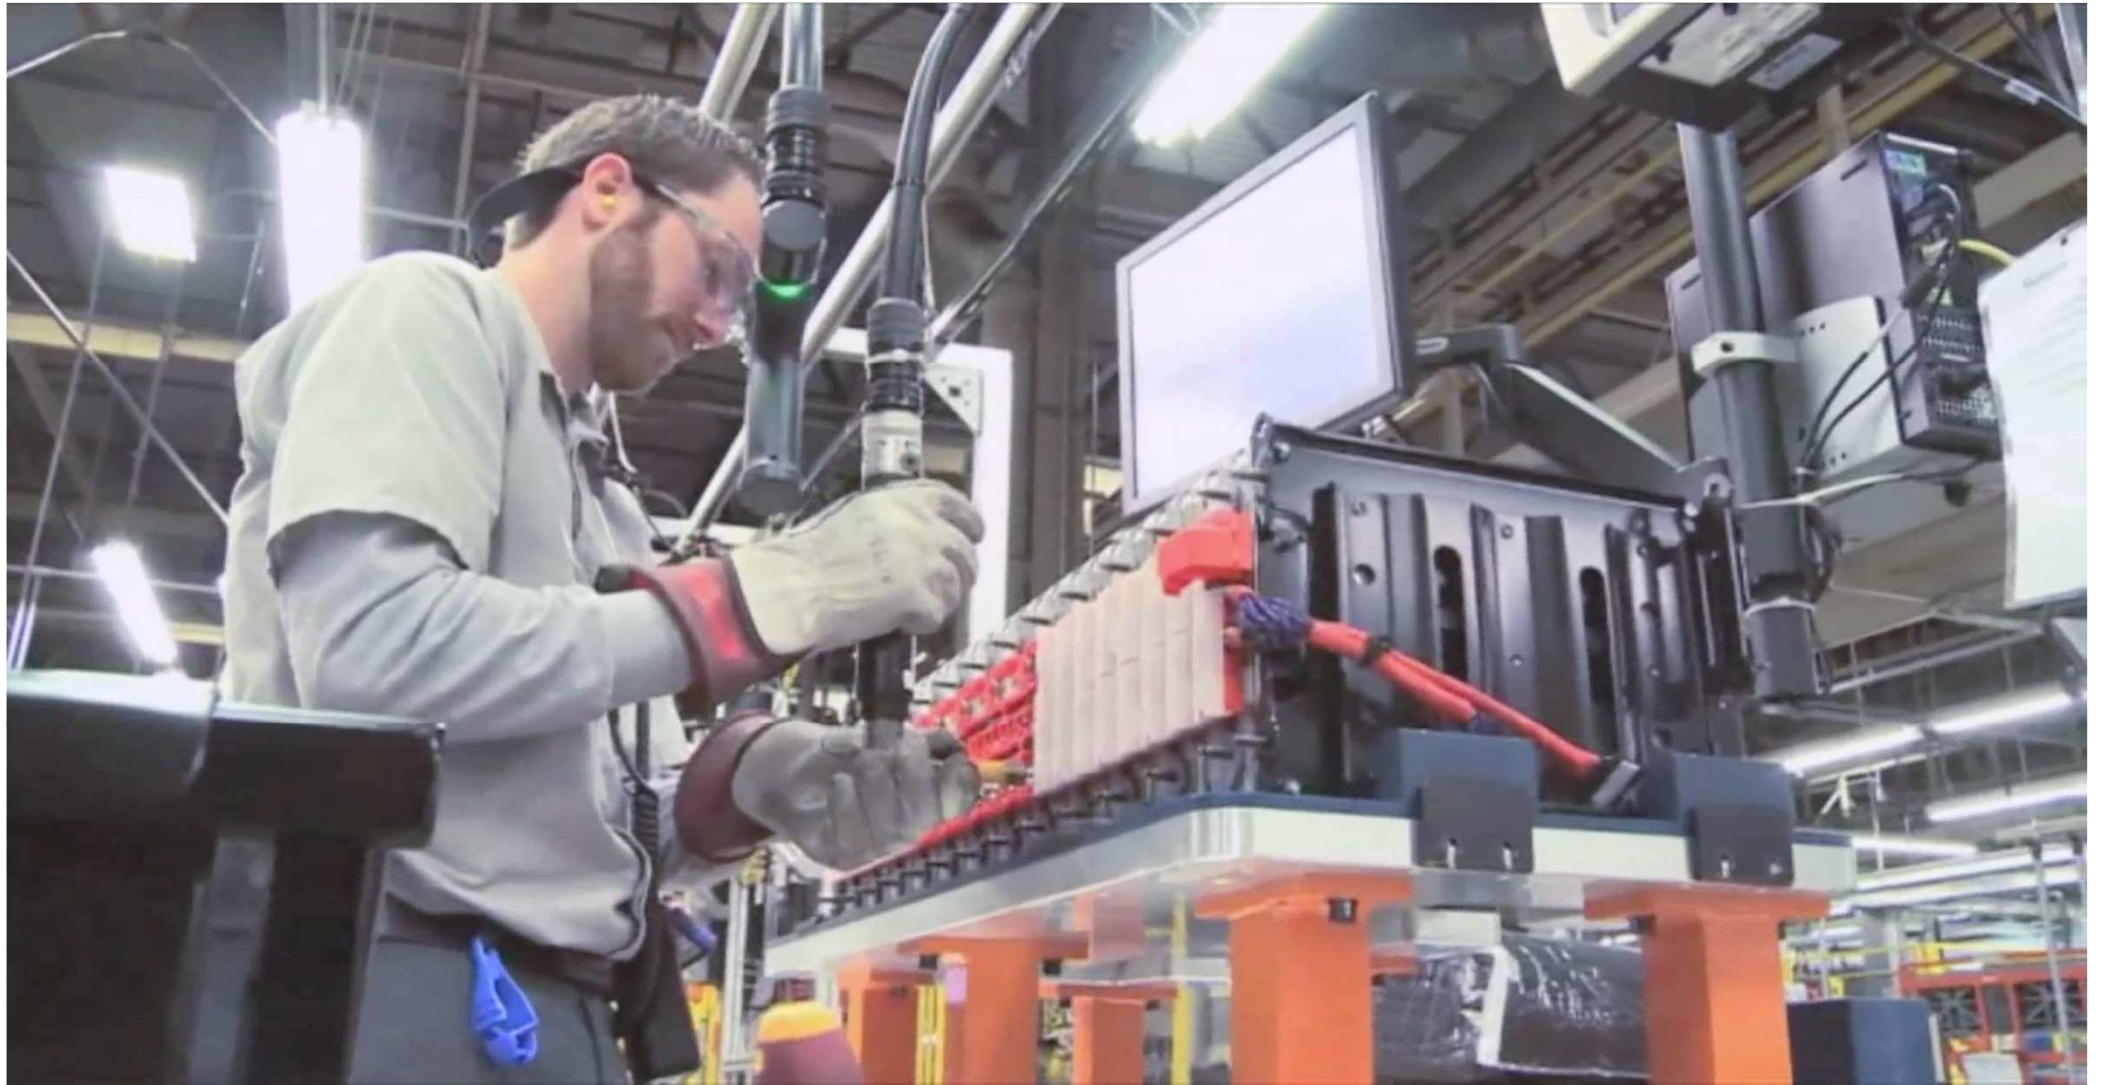

Professional Engineers in California Government

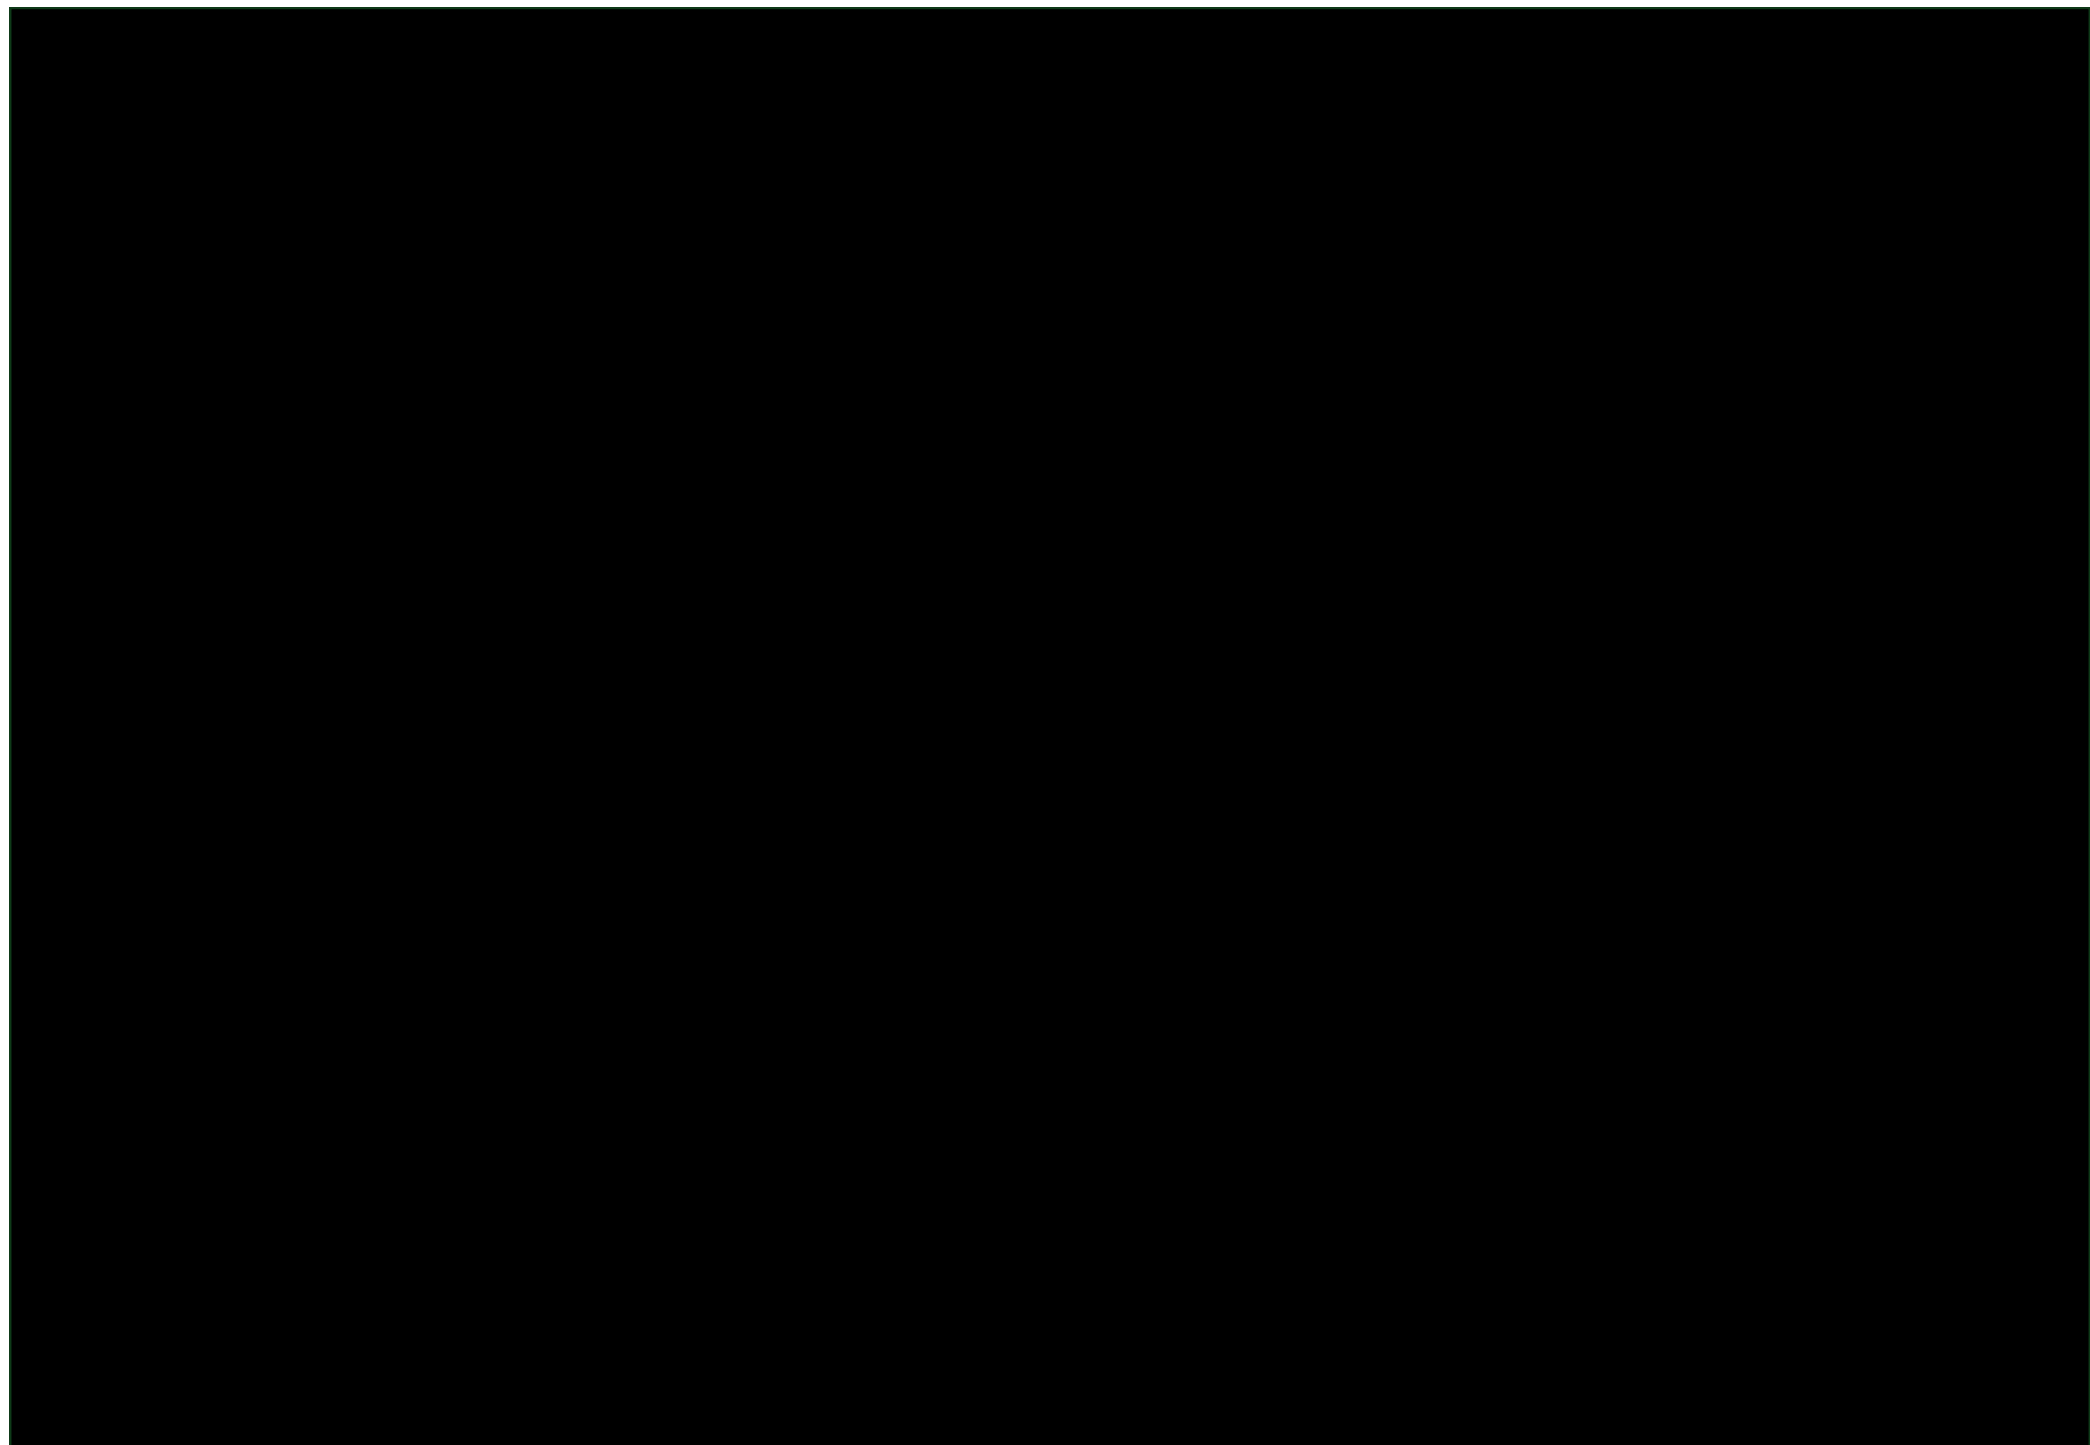

Standards and Goals

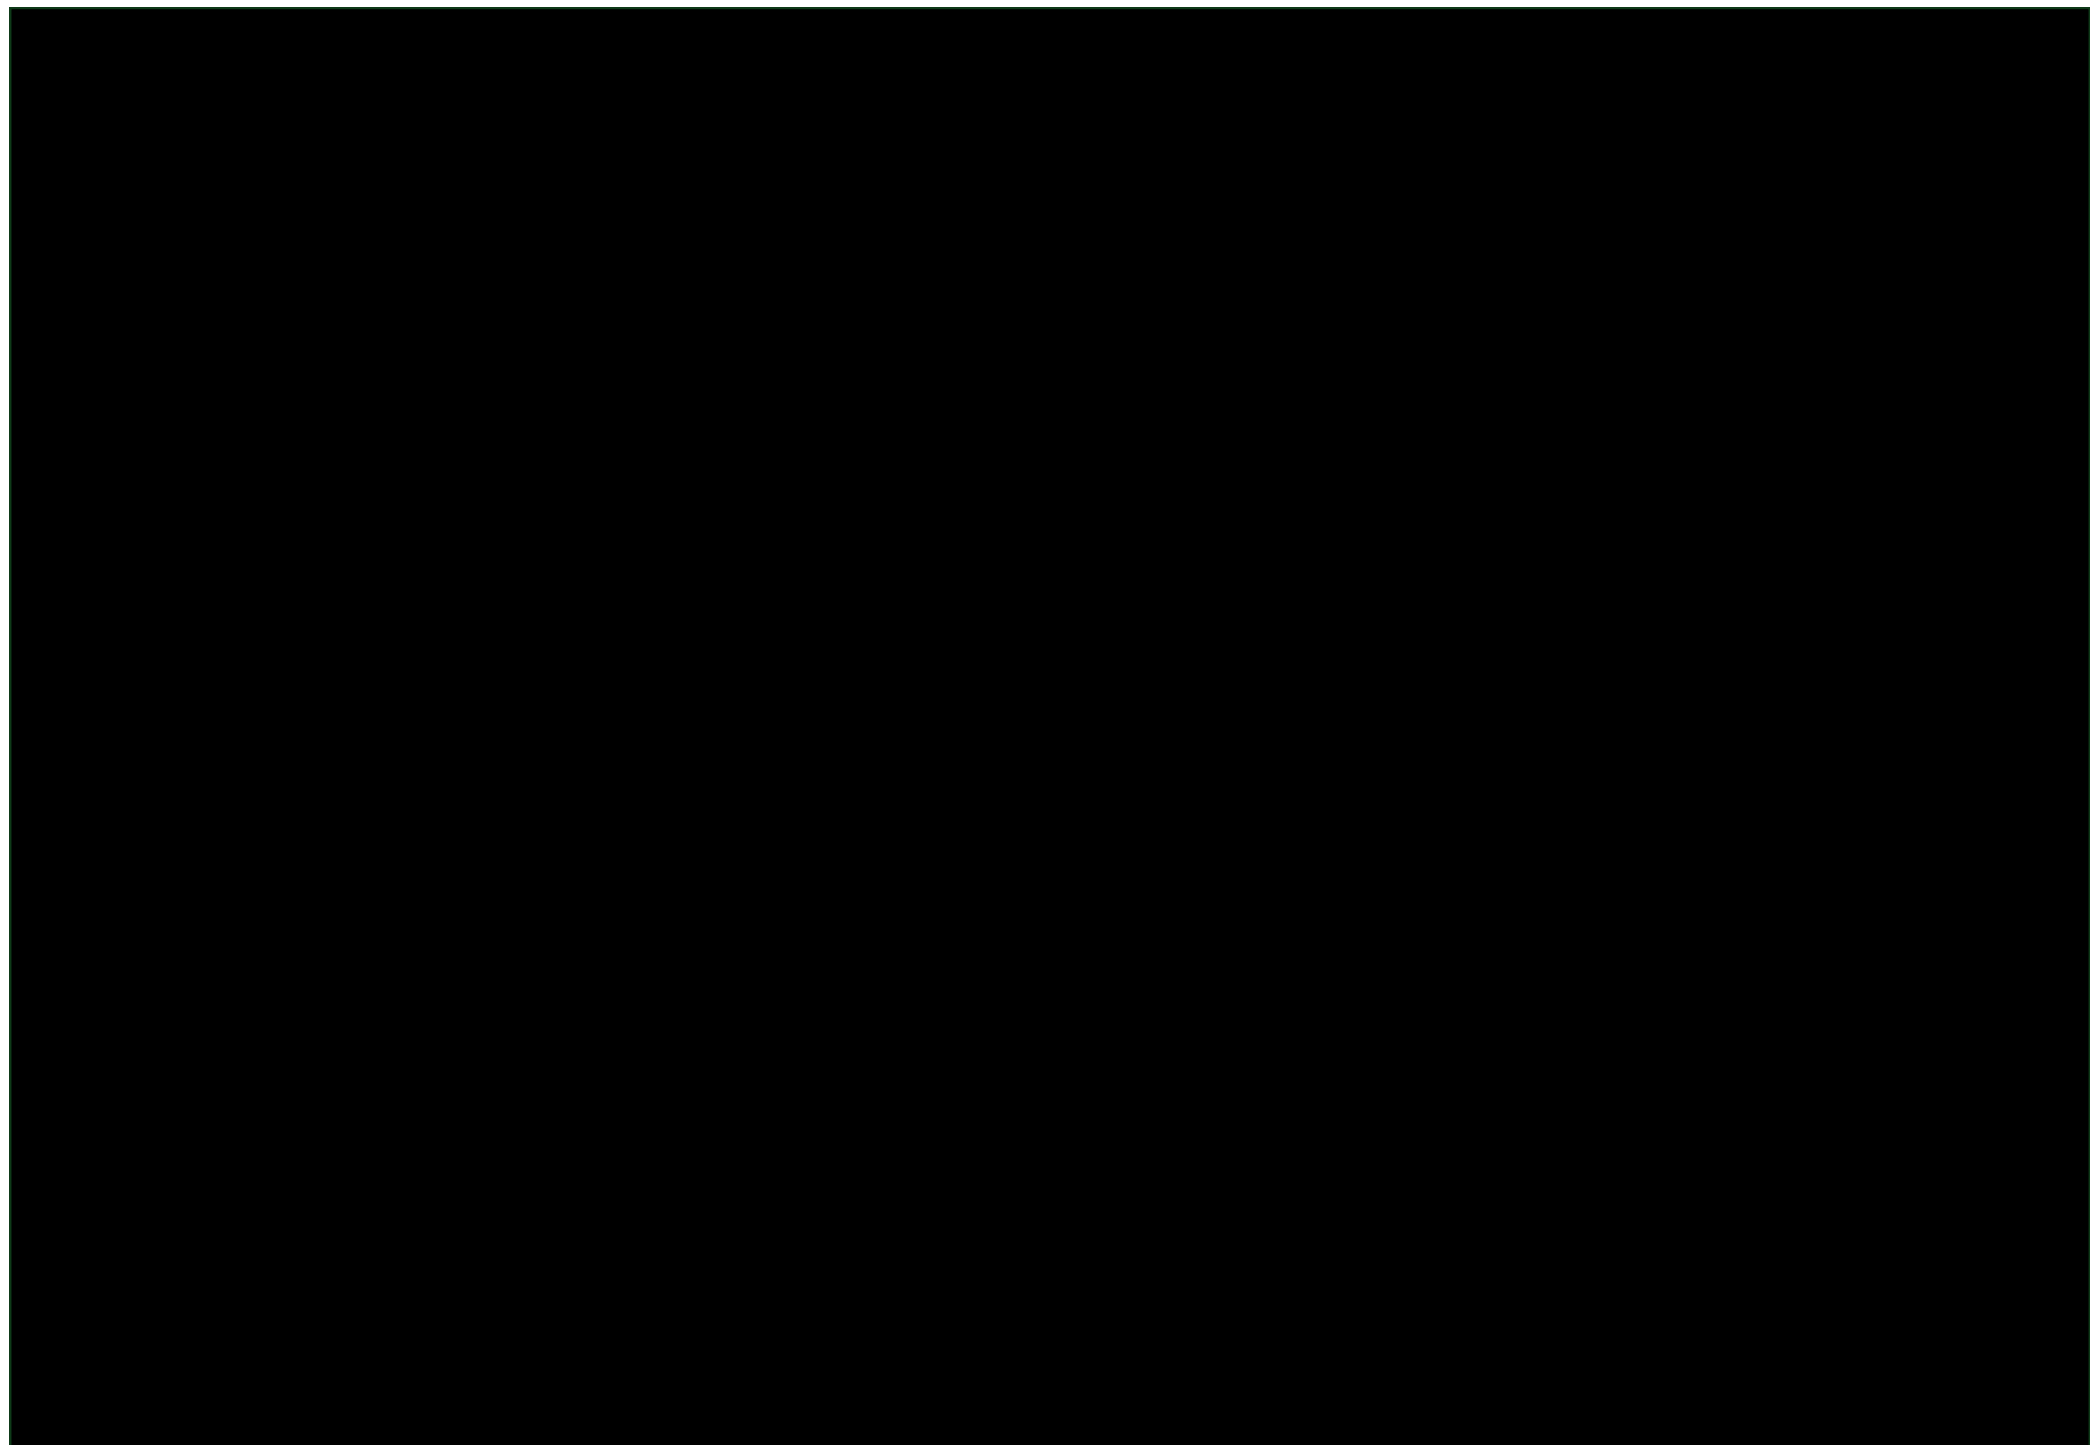

2020	U.S. – Reduce GHG emissions by 17% of 2005 levels Germany – 1 million EVs on the road
2025	California – 15% of sales – ZEVs 1.5 million ZEVs/PHEVs on the road U.S. – 54.5 MPG
2035	U.S. – 80% renewable energy
2050	California – GHG 80% below 1990 levels

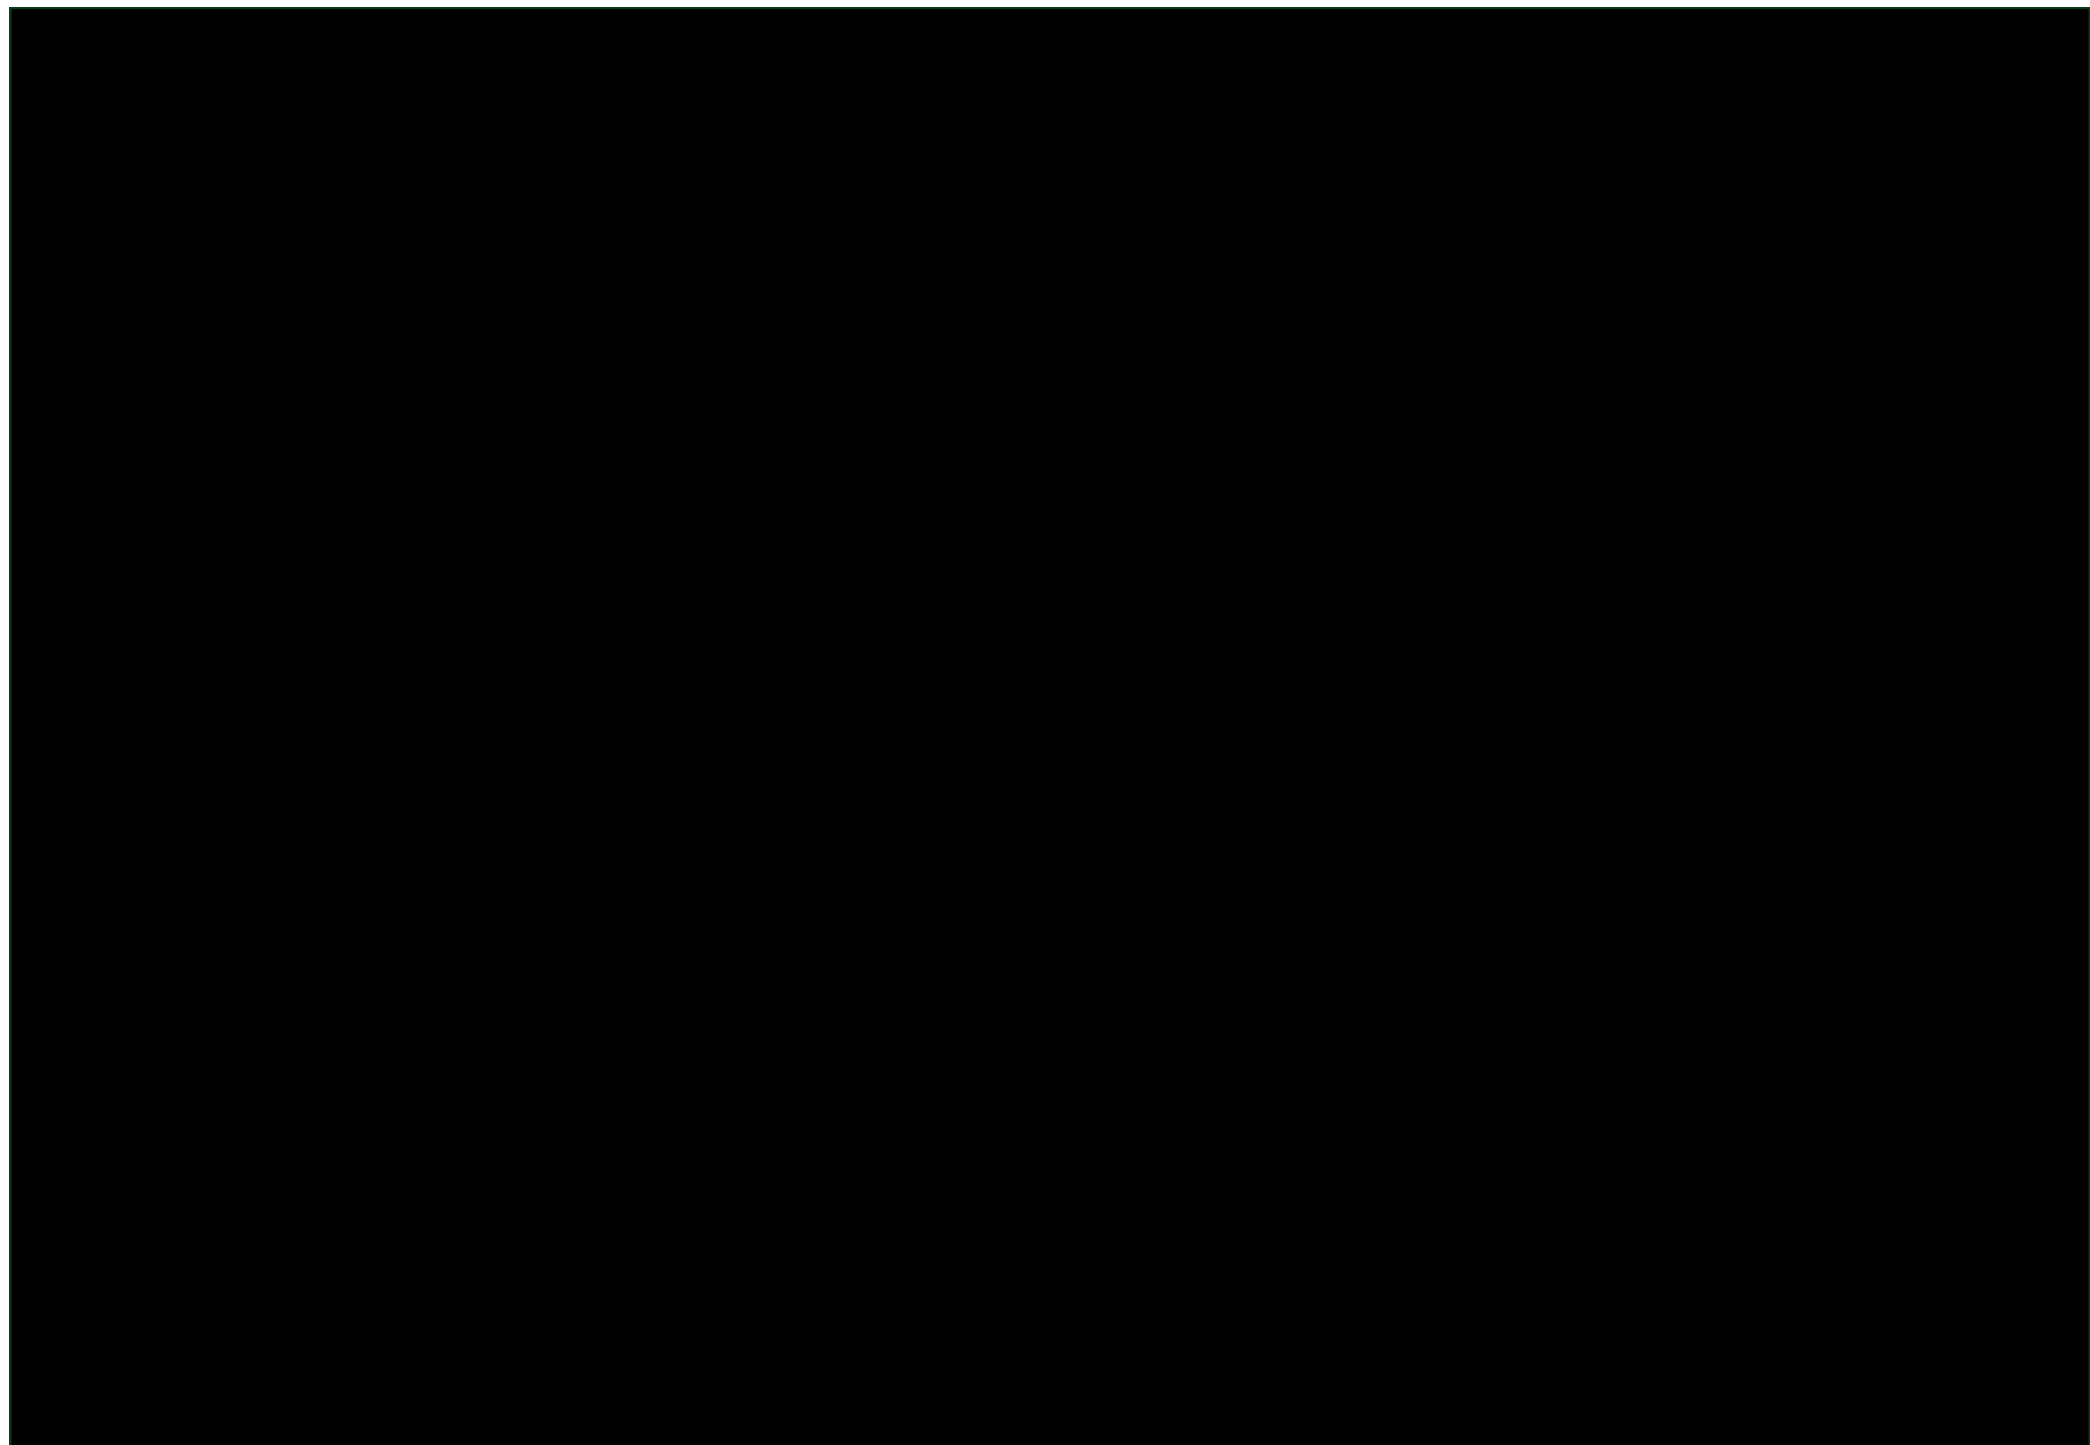

DriveClean.
ca.gov

A buying guide for clean and efficient vehicles
Brought to you by California Air Resources Board

About ARB | Contact Us | News & Events

Search DriveClean Site

GO

Do Your Research

Know the Score

Think Clean

Find Special Resources

Learn More

SHARE

Email

Print

Search & Explore

By Make/Model

By Category

By Technologies & Fuel Types

By Smog Score

By Global Warming Score

By Engine Family

Calculate Savings

By Incentives

By Driving Habits & Fuel Costs

By Vehicle Comparison

Tools & Calculators

Like 138 Send

DriveClean.
Buying Guide

Looking to reduce your carbon footprint, save money or just contribute less to that nasty smog? Well, this is your buying guide to the cleanest, most efficient cars on the market.

Learn more >

Start Your Research

Browse by Make and Model:

Year

Make

Model

Find a Car

By Category:

Sedan

Wagon

Van/Minivan

Coupe

Pickup

Crossover

Sports

SUV

Neighborhood

Technologies & Fuel Types

Hybrid Electric

Battery Electric

Compressed Natural Gas

E85

Gasoline

Diesel

Learn More >

Learn More >

Learn More >

Learn More >

Learn More >

Learn More >

Quick Compare

Vehicle 1

Year

Make

Model

Vehicle 2

Year

Make

Model

Vehicle 3

Year

Make

Model

Compare

Plug-in Electric Vehicle
Resource Center

Find Clean Vehicles

Slide arrows to view vehicles by score.
Scores of seven or higher are the cleanest.

Global Warming Score

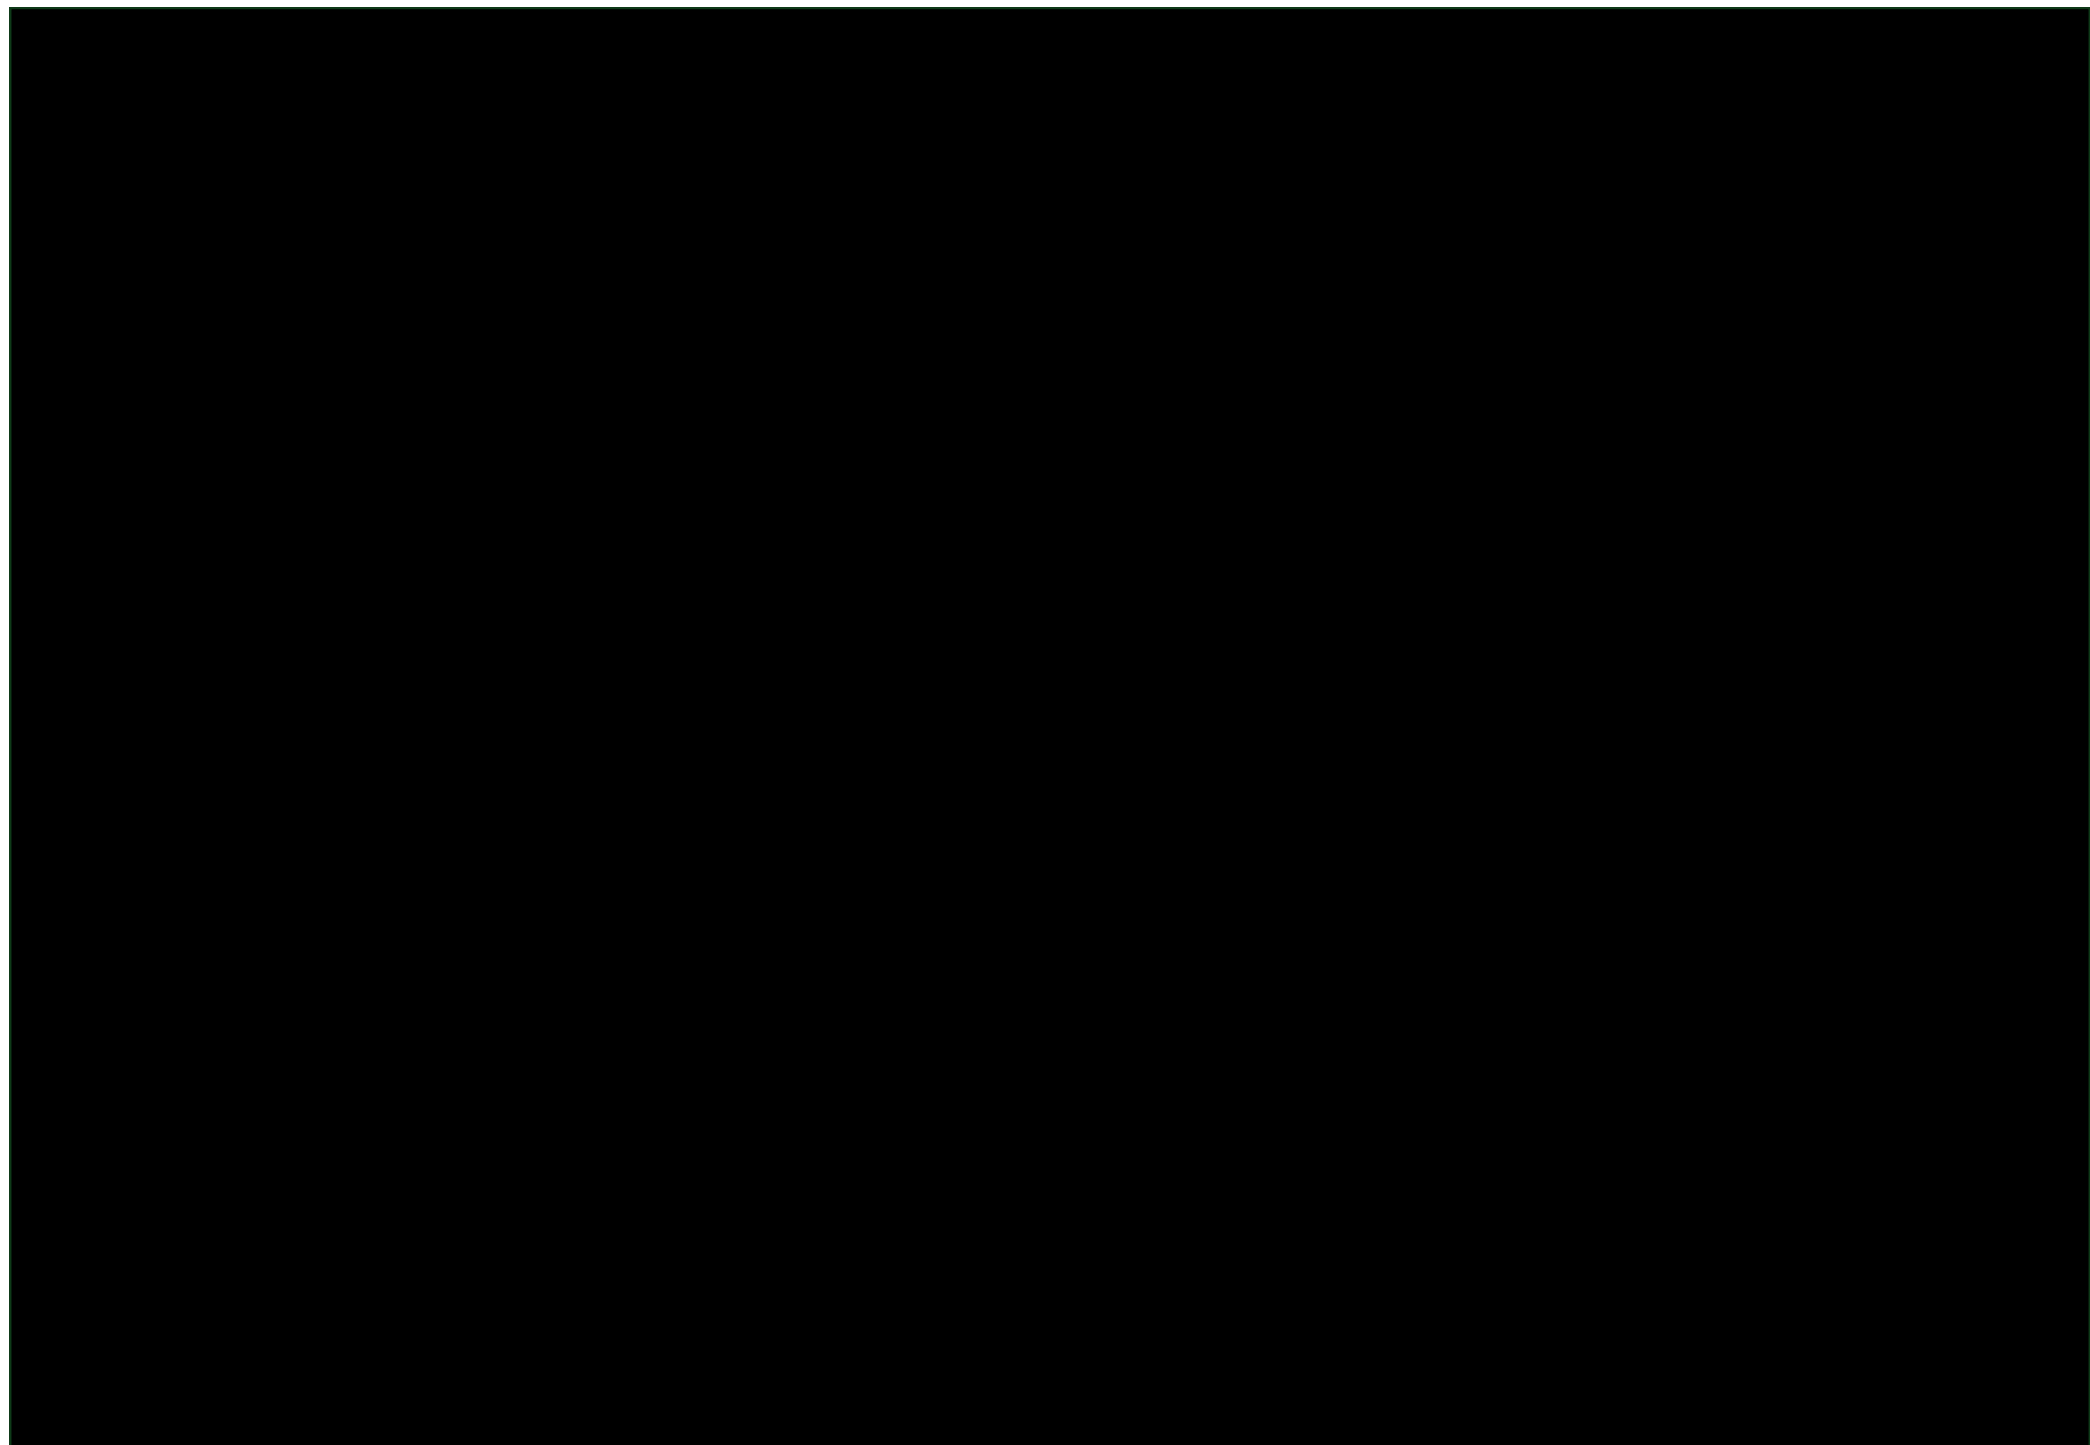

Learn More >

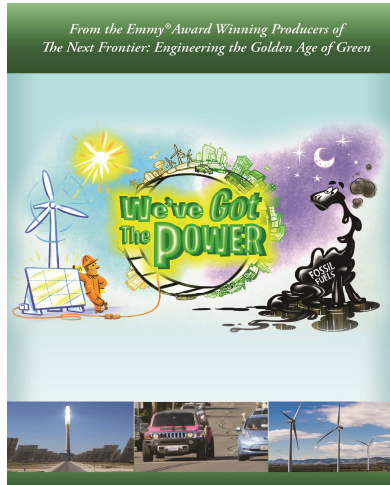

Cleanest

10

GO

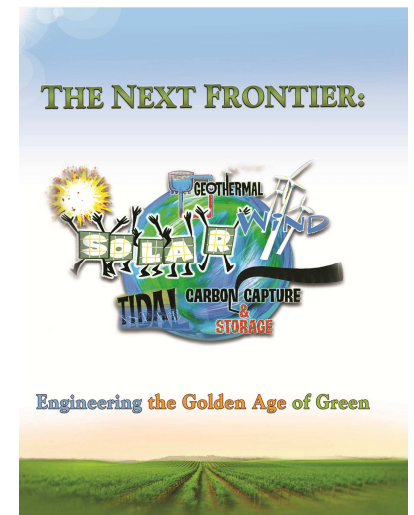

www.DriveClean.ca.gov

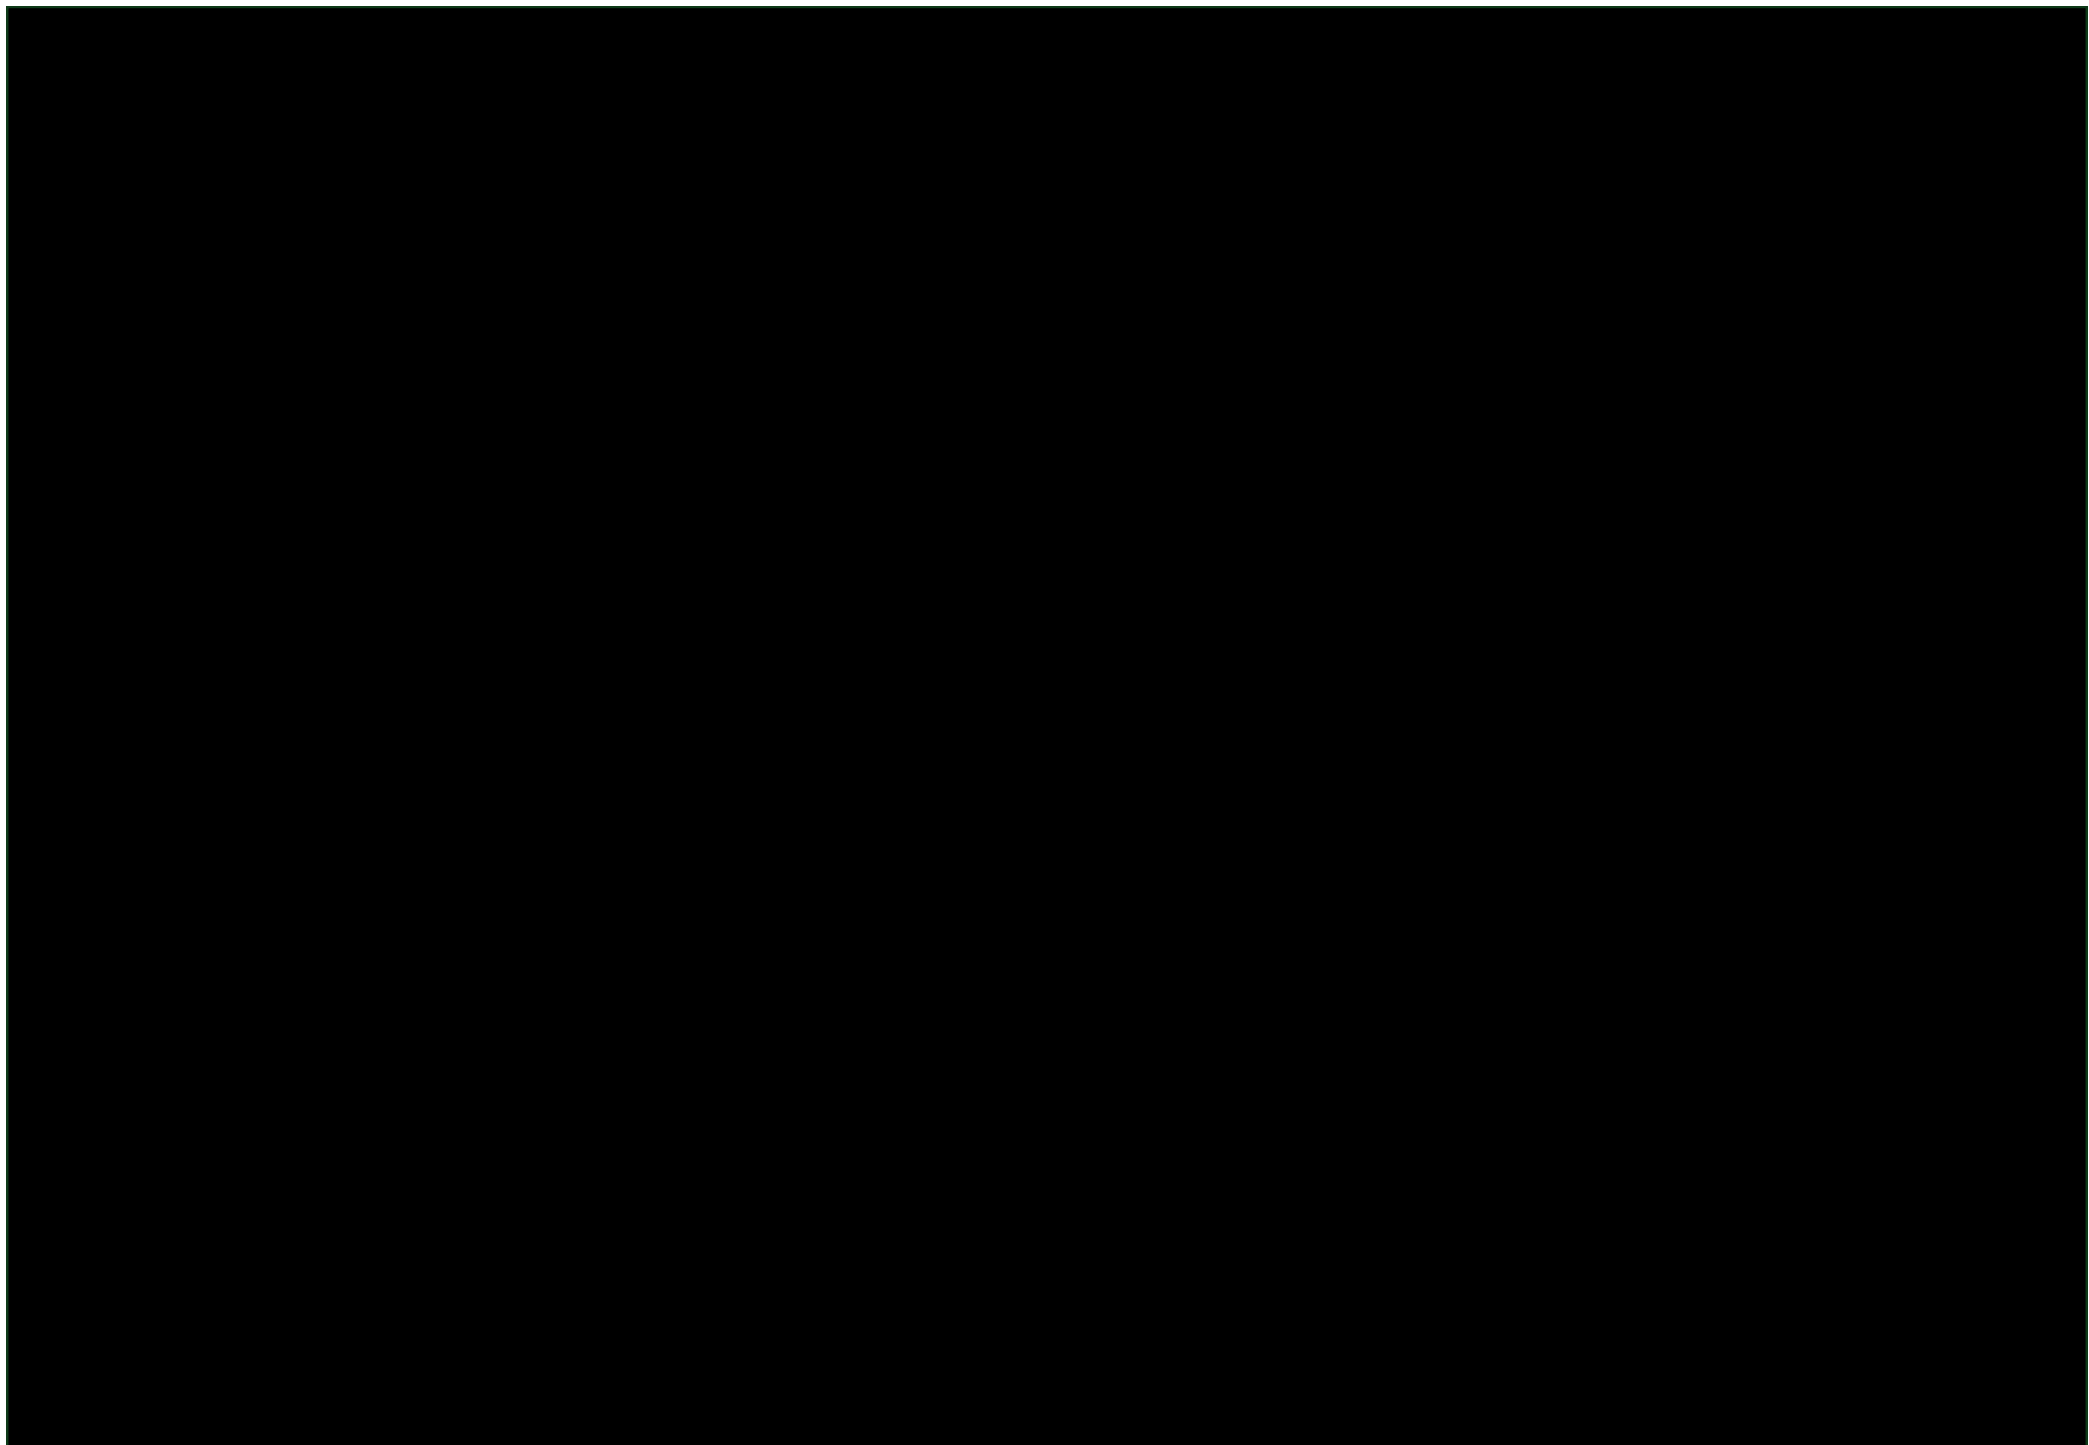

www.wevegotthepower.com

www.thenextfrontiermovie.com

Incentives

- * At Purchase

- * Trade-Ins

- * Taxes

- * Charging Facilities

- * Free _____

